Day 2: Boulogne. As the main fishing port in France, expect a bustle of activity in this charming town, especially around the famed Nausicaä. This celebrated sea-life centre lets you visit the depth of the oceans whilst learning about the seafaring history of the town. Visit the old town, whose foundations date back to medieval times and marvel at the 11th century Belfry which still stands. Do not miss a visit to the Basilica de Notre-Dame with its 101 metre high dome and history-filled crypt, the longest in France at 128 metres, with columns also dating back to the 11th century.

Day 3: Le Touquet. The chic resort of Le Touquet has long been a favourite with both English and French, seeking to spend time in the renowned elegance and great atmosphere. As well a fantastic beach, the area is home to a casino, golf club and racecourse, in addition to all the water-sports you could want. Spend some time wandering the streets with their chic boutiques and designers shops and visit the markets for a wonderful shopping experience before returning back to Boulogne.

Day 4: Return to the UK. Return to Calais via the town of St Omer, where there will be time for last-minute shopping before catching the short ferry crossing to Dover, then home.
