Suggested itinerary:

Day 1: Depart the UK. Travel to Dover for the ferry crossing to Calais then continue to Lille.

Day 2: Lille. Lille's old quarter is a charming patchwork of pretty squares and the tangle of cobbled streets known as Vieux Lille is filled with boutiques, jewellers and antique shops. Take a city sightseeing tour in the morning to see highlights of northern France's largest city, with its outstanding Flemish architecture. Feast your eyes on the ornate 17th century Vieille Bourse, the city's finest building, then perhaps stop in a café in the Grand Place and watch life unfold in the city's favourite meeting place. In the afternoon, perhaps visit the picturesque Place Rihour, the Museum of Fine Arts or one of the city's parks or gardens.

Day 3: Bruges. Drive to Bruges, about an hour from Lille. Known as the 'Venice of the North', Bruges has a labyrinth of canals and well-preserved medieval buildings. It can be explored on foot, by boat along the canals, or by horse-drawn carriage. See the towering Belfry which dominates the old market square, the Beguinage, the Lake of Love and Notre Dame church which contains Michelangelo's Madonna. Guided tours can be arranged, or brewery visits, chocolate or lace-making demonstrations. Return to Lille late afternoon.

Day 4: Return to the UK. Return to Calais via the town of St Omer, where there will be time for last-minute shopping before catching the short ferry crossing to Dover, then home.

A No Currency Surcharge Guarantee is available on 2012 European Tours.
